True Icebreaker!

Our ideas for your successful EVENT!

Icebreaker Mind & Senses

Icebreaker-Idea

Start a long day of seminars, conferences or congresses with powerful energies. With our specially developed, effective and efficient interactions, we make your employees fit or fit again for the contents ahead.

Running order

- ✓ In short sessions your participants will experience exciting activities, learn unique techniques that activate body and mind or experience how holistic mobilization exercises bring relaxation and balance. Whether as an active getting to know each other or as a team experience, you will experience for yourself that 20 minutes are enough.
- ✓ Our specialized trainers and guides motivate you to experience yourself with empathy and fun.

What it takes:

short motivation units invigorate body and mind ▪ fresh energy promotes concentration ▪ focus your participants' attention on your contents

Goal of the task:

Motivation, self-awareness, activating body & mind, increasing receptivity

Icbreaker Pipeline

Object of the game

With the pipeline, the task is to transport a ball across a certain distance to an designated point. However, it is prohibited to touch or even drop the sphere representing a jointly processed project during transport.

Running order

- ✓ Each team receives a maximum of 3 pipes and 1 ball, and must as a team overcome the distance of about 30 meters with the pipes and the ball.
- ✓ The pipeline is used as a means of transport, a system of 3 halved plastic tubes per team, which may only be used by the participants according to certain rules. Whether this activity takes place indoors or outdoors, we can well adapt to your agenda.

What it takes

Joint strategy development and cooperation ▪ communication on interfaces ▪ accepting responsibility ▪ dealing with stress ▪ giving feedback

Goal of the task:

Precise arrangements and goal-oriented work will bring success

Icbreaker Parkours of Senses

Object of the game

Our perceptions are the source of life and thanks to them it is possible to recognize our environment, to orient ourselves, to get in contact with other people as well as to consciously feel and learn experiences. In this challenge, the teams will be exploring and experiencing the wonders of our senses at 3 stations. Blindfolded, the participants have the task of distinguish different scents, to taste different ingredients and to feel for specific objects.

Running order

- ✓ The goal is to earn many points with heightened senses. For "smelling" we provide different odour samples which need to be determined.
- ✓ For the "tasting" the participants are offered a mix of different flavours, which must be tasted and distinguished.
- ✓ The subtask "Feeling" contains objects in an opaque container, which must be identified.

What it takes

Joint agreements ▪ Focus on the non-visual senses

Goal of the task:

Communication, teamwork and enhancing perception

Icbreaker Columbus's Egg

Object of the game

The team challenge with „Columbus's Egg“ lies in wrapping a raw egg in such a way, that it survives a drop from 2 meters height onto a hard surface. It is a thrilling undertaking that motivates the participants to find the solution, to communicate with each other.

Running order

- ✓ Each team is provided with it's material ( a raw egg, 15 straws, 1 meter tape.)
- ✓ The goal is to build a construction within 15 – 20 minutes, that will protect the egg from breakage after a drop from 2 meters height onto a hard surface.
- ✓ After the time has run out all teams meet for the final testing session to see if the designs will keep the egg from breaking.

What it takes

Responsible use of resources ▪ team coordination for the design ▪ courage to improvise

Goal of the task:

Use of resources, improvisation and communication

Icebreaker HAKA Energy Dance

Icebreaker-idea

We want all participants to become ONE! That's not difficult with this incredible atmosphere of rhythmic clapping, moving and stomping. The HAKA tradition gives you goose bumps! Older generations of employees are simply pulled in and for the young successors of your company this is cool anyway! The fresh motivation for a strong community and the spiritual values behind this experience make your employees implement these feelings into practice in their daily work.

Running order

- ✓ Our HAKA-instructor encourages: "Beat your hands together! Push your chest forward! Bend your knees! Stomp your feet as hard as you can..."
- ✓ With this rhythmic unity each participant with his body, his voice and his emotions gives the HAKA a very individual expression and still becomes ONE with the entire group.

What it takes:

bundle energies ▪ promote strength, power and security of everyone in the community

Goal of the task:

With strengthened confidence in oneself, everyone can do the best for their team and the team spirit is awakened!

Icbreaker Bob the Builder

Object of the game

A set of LEGOs offers a variety of choice vehicles built using the same bricks and LEGOs. (i.e.: Car, Aeroplane, etc.). The roles required within the team: Architects, construction engineers, site inspectors. The goal is to reconstruct the designated object in the shortest possible time (15 – 20 min.) The challenge: There is a 15 meters gap between the „construction site“ and the „architect's head office“

Running order

- ✓ 1 to 2 Team members work as architects at the „head office“ the construction engineers on site and the site inspectors act en route in between.
- ✓ The building plan remains stationary at the head office. The site inspectors convey the different building steps to the construction team on site; Yet, they are not allowed to join the building session, hands must always be kept behind their backs.
- ✓ The challenge for construction team and architects lies in finishing the building project within 15 – 20 min. using an appropriate communications strategy. The teams can only successfully build and finish their projects if communication is working.

What it takes:

Talking to and coordination of each other ▪ Good team organization will lead to success.

Goal of the task:

To recognize the importance of work organization, communication, strategy and foremost coordination!

Icbreaker Leonardo Bridge

Object of the game

In 1480, Leonardo da Vinci designed a very light, and stable bridge, easy to transport, simple and quick to set up. The team's task is to build a self-supporting bridge that could theoretically be crossed safely. With the provided 28 wooden slates and within 20-30 min. without the use of extra materials such as nails, ropes or adhesives. This bridge is symbolic for the emotional and physical connection of man, teams and departments.

Running order

- ✓ On each of the imaginary river banks 14 slates are stacked. In small groups the participants plan their bridge construction to span the 28 slates without any further materials a distance of 4 meters; the „river“ may not be crossed.
- ✓ The outcome is a self-standing construction ideally serving as a metaphor for the team's stability inside and out.

What it takes

Good interface and bottle neck communication ▪ coordinated and goal.-oriented work ▪ dealing and coping with tight resources ▪ only through coordination, creativity and exchange of expertise the bridge can be built

Goal of the task:

Promoting strategy development and teamwork, positive influence on frustration tolerance

Icbreaker Blind Rope Line

Object of the game

Blindfolded, the team has the task to lay out a large square using a long rope. Only through joint participant effort will this be accomplished.

Running order

- ✓ After formulation of the precise task the participants are blindfolded. Afterwards the team members are spun in circles and singularly lead by the coach to the designated spot on the rope afoot.
- ✓ Each participant now takes hold of a piece of rope with both hands. Throughout the entire game the rope connection must not be lost. As soon as all participants are in place the task is to lay out a square ( or any other given geometrical form) .
- ✓ The blindfolds may be removed when all have agreed upon having finished the task successfully.
- ✓ Which outcome to their efforts can the participants look onto?

What it takes

Operating together ▪ trusting in each other ▪ Strategically finding a solution as a team

Goal of the task:

Communication, trust, strategy development and promotion of teamwork.

Icbreaker Magic Wand

Object of the game

With a lot of team spirit and communication, the staff will be placed on the ground. But the „wand“ has its own rules of gravity.

Running order

- ✓ The participants are lined up facing each other. Arms are bent at a 90-degrees angle. Point the index fingers forward and thumbs up, arranging the fingers alternating in positioning. A Bamboo staff is placed onto the fingers by the coach and pressed down. The task is to lower the „wand onto the floor.
- ✓ No one is to lose touch with the staff and no other finger or part of the body may touch the handle and neither may the staff be held onto. If one does, the team must start over again.

What it takes

Debating within the team ▪ actively taking the lead ▪ Design of resolution strategies

Goal of the task:

Acceptance of leadership, promoting of cooperation and communication

Kick off - Organized in a team!

Our ideas for your successful kick off!

HAKA Energy Dance

energetic

HAKA Energy Dance

Probably the coolest icebreaker in the world

The HAKA dance with its New Zealand origin means "song with dance" and one meets to feel the strength of the group, to experience courage through the group and to find one's own balance in its power. The good thing about this music and dance performance: no participant needs to master an instrument, because everything you need, you automatically bring with you! We are talking about the symphony of the different parts of the body that represent the instruments. Hands, arms, legs, feet, voices, eyes, tongue and the body as a whole merge the individual expressions into one statement. But HAKA is not just HAKA. There are different dances, e.g. to welcome somebody/something or to celebrate successes. The focus lies always on the emotions meant to be expressed.

In this performance the inside is outwardly expressed, and we give face to emotions like anger, joy, anger or fear! Because only something that has a face is tangible!

Team Net

networking

NEW

Team Net

The network railway - a networking of superlatives!

Together with your colleagues you construct a stable net made of ropes, lines (short pieces of rope) and useful knots. Strong metaphors such as „reliable links“, „network of contacts“, an „operating network“ or a „global network“ are vividly conveyed in this concept. Seemingly simple this does require a lot of coordination and communication. After a brief introduction on knots, materials and tasks at hand each participant is asked to tie a viable team net. Divided into groups each team constructs their own part of team net. Important above all is the accordance with the other teams as only at first glance does each team work for themselves!

In a grand finale, the individual team nets are assembled piece by piece and subjected to a highlight: A "stress test". Indoors or outdoors? Your choice!

iPad Short Film-/Commercial Festival

dramatic

iPad Short Film- / Commercial Festival

Put the focus on your subjects!

After a short briefing and the reception of the film bags, iPads, director's scripts and props, the teams start their own short film production. Feeling the energy of the creative process each participant is part of it all! The teams have to shoot a short film or commercial on a given theme. The venues can be chosen freely or according to the topic. The teams shoot different "takes" editing them with the iMovie program. They edit the film material, underscore it with music, create introductions and closing credits and much more. Subject to the time at hand the film can be shot in one take. In the end or for the evening event an Oscar awards ceremony could happen with the famous words ...and the Oscar goes to...

You do not want your most important company and team values to disappear in a word document, but to be lived by your participants? Then this format is ideal for you. In short: A team adventure with the added value of training!

Unmanned Flying Object Construction

uplifting

NEW

Unmanned Flying Object Construction

Your team gives you wings.

We will give you clearance to showcase your company values, sales goals or product launches spectacularly and catapult them to phenomenal height. Your messages can be found in the design of the unmanned flying objects, on wings, the projectile, the aviator cap or the pilot's overall. After a welcome and briefing each team of pilots is given a basic set of selected materials. However, before the crews are allowed to construct and build, there are certain roles to be assigned in the team. Required are specialists in statics, technology, creativity and materials. And who will be captain?

The highlight: 2 showdowns at once. First, the design and overall concept of the unmanned flying objects are evaluated by voting and then the unmanned flying objects are catapulted into the sky in the Air-Race-Challenge. READY FOR TAKE OFF!

Dance-Perform-Sing-Create

It's Showtime!

Einmal als Stars auf der Bühne stehen und mit den Kollegen im Ensemble singen, performen oder tanzen. Aufgabe für die Showteams ist es, zu vorher festzulegenden Themen und Präsentationsformen, einzelne Szenen zu entwerfen und einzustudieren. Als Inspiration für die Teams dienen berühmte Opern, Musicals, die unterschiedlichsten Filmgenres (wie z.B. Abenteuer, Action, Fantasy, Horror, Western) oder Musikrichtungen (wie Blues, Folk, Rock'n Roll, House, Reggae, Schlager, Funk). Jetzt heißt es, eine ganz eigene Interpretation zu erschaffen und auf die Bühne zu bringen. Wir konzipieren Ihnen ein Dance-Perform-Sing-Create Festival, bei dem Ihre Teilnehmer einzigartige Momente und eine fabelhafte Stimmung erleben werden. Sie lernen Ihre Kollegen mal anders kennen und haben Spaß miteinander. Jeder Einzelne ist Teil des Gestaltungsprozesses und des Showerfolges! Jedes Thema wird von einem Coach, der für 2 Teams zuständig ist, betreut.
