Winter & Xmas KAPLA®-Wonderland

A magical team building event for your Christmas party.

With KAPLA® bricks, creativity and tact your participants can make their Christmas dreams come true. Teamwork and interaction are requested when engaging in your personal Xmas-KAPLA® Day during Advent. In addition to the wooden KAPLA®-bricks we provide LEGO-elements, fir sprigs, cotton and Christmas tree ornaments for your teams. The task is to create a magical Winter and Christmas KAPLA® world. This specification can be extended to making use of your event's theme, your corporate values or your company vision for the upcoming year. The fun, joyous and successful distraction enhances the sustainability of this team building even making your Christmas party unforgettable.

As a grand finale, the beautiful winter and Xmas landscapes are celebrated. The most beautiful works of art could be awarded by having each team present their team Wonderland with a re-scripted Christmas poem or song.

iPad Short Film- / Commercial Festival

Just right for your annual review!

After a short briefing and the reception of the film bags, iPads, director's scripts and props, the teams start their own short film production. Feeling the energy of the creative process each participant is part of it all! The teams have to shoot a short film or commercial on a given theme. The venues can be chosen freely or according to the topic. The teams shoot different "takes" editing them with the iMovie program. They edit the film material, underscore it with music, create introductions and closing credits and much more. Subject to the time at hand the film can be shot in one take. In the end or for the evening event an Oscar awards ceremony could happen with the famous words ...and the Oscar goes to...

You do not want your most important company and team values to disappear in a word document, but to be lived by your participants? Then this format is ideal for you. In short: A team adventure with the added value of training!

Night Archery

Absolute concentration, focusing and a unique atmosphere!

And suddenly everything is quiet and everyone is concentrated. Close your eyes again, take a deep breath, open your eyes and...shoot! The arrow flies towards the target with incredible speed. Bullseye! No, we are not stranded in a Robin Hood adventure land. Welcome to our teamgeist archery event! Concentration, absolute inner peace, a thrilling contest, especially in the winter months a breathtaking atmosphere and tons of fun are waiting for the participants. Safety is, of course, ensured as well, since our modern sport bows are no toys: Specially trained personnel, secured lanes and archery nets make sure that the arrows go where they belong: Into the bullseye. Or at least onto the target, because that is your task.

The good news is: Archery can easily be learned by anyone. The learning curve is extremely steep, so that after a couple of trial shots under the supervision of our coaches, absolutely everyone can score valuable points for their team.

Christmas Confectionary

Winter, Christmas, baked delights...

Would you like the irresistible Winter scent of gingerbread wafting through the air of your offices this year? Our gingerbread event does without oven and pots. Divided into teams and equipped with large gingerbread sheets and decoration materials, the participants have the task to create a Christmas work of art. With your skill, ingenuity and individuality, Christmas trees, sleighs with reindeer, pyramids or even your festively decorated gingerbread company building can be created. After a short planning phase, the architects and artists get down to business. With each gingerbread sheet used, the teamwork of art grows with ornaments to complete it. If you prefer a bit more exclusivity, give your teams the opportunity to win additional decoration material with selected team tasks.

Great fun for all participants and sweet teeth of your company. We can gladly hold a design competition to award the most festive creations as a grand finale.

Christmas-DART

Guaranteed a fun variety for your party!

Everyone can hit the dartboard with a dart, and of course the corresponding points are counted. But who manages to hit the Christmas baubles mounted in the outfield of the dartboard may double all points achieved in this throw. The game is played on the basis of the classic Dart games of 301 or 501. After a short introduction of the darts rules and easy warm-up rounds, you and your team will play for victory. You have to reduce the score from 501 or 301 points to, ideally, be the first team scoring zero. The team players contend together and have to react to the throws of their teammates. Our Christmas-DART game combines concentration, speed and precision in an ever repeating excitement and surprise – where does the dart strike?

We guarantee an unique atmosphere and provide plenty of reasons to celebrate!
